

Anne Mae Hintzen

March 24, 1942 - September 11, 2025

Anne Mae was Born to Annie Jackson and Henry Lewis and raised in Wetumpka, Alabama with her ten other siblings. Anna Mae Hintzen, affectionately known as “Susie”, of Brooklyn, New York, passed away peacefully at her home on September 11, 2025, at the age of 83. Born on March 24, 1942, in Alabama, she would later move to New York where she pursued her education at New York University's School of Nursing. Anna went on to serve as a dedicated nurse, caring for others with the same compassion and faith that guided her life. She joined First Calvary Baptist Church and later Pilgrim church in 1994. Anna was a loving and devoted wife whom cherished and loved her husband until his passing in January of 2018. She was a devoted mother of her two sons, Christopher and Kyle, and a beloved grandmother who raised her granddaughters, Chance and Kyliea, as her own. Anna also cherished her grandchildren Shaniqua, Nature, Anastasia, Monique, Kimberly, Christopher, and Joseph. She also cherished her great grandchildren Jerome, Daniel, Jayden, Isabella, Ca’syn, Ca’mylee, and Dalia. Anna is also survived by her daughter-in-law Karleth and her youngest brother Clarence. A woman of deep Faith, Anna was known for her steadfast commitment to her church,

attending services every Sunday, prayer meetings on Wednesday, and choir rehearsal on Fridays.

Her life was a shining example of faith, strength, and unconditional love for her family and community. Anna Mae "Susie" Hintzen will be remembered as a God fearing woman, a caretaker, and a matriarch whose presence touched every life she encountered period
