“ These details come to share a unique memory of Calvin J. Cook, Sr. from his Aunt Patricia aka "Ann". Shortly after his birth, I had the pleasure of assisting in nurturing and raising him in our family. What truly stands out in my mind is the memory of his learning to walk with those little "bowlegs" which were identical to his mother's but consistent with all of the members in my family. I just admired the spirit of his vibrant determination and his "infectious" laughter which both I can still see and hear today. Calvin, aka "Cakky", your aunt misses you, and she will always love you! All of God Blessings on your journey, Pat, John, Delvin, and PJ.
