“ I can an remember when all of the older teenage young ladies would get together and walk to town together from sycamore street to 191 to get Granitha and felicia, we had so much of fun walking and, laughing Felisha would always say something to crack us all up, it was a joy to have her as a childhood friend and she would always let you know what she had on her mind...she was real. To her Mom Ms.Bernice, Connie, Grenitha, and Meredith my hurt hurts for you but joy will cm in the morning I love you guys and I'm praying with you all GODbe with you in comfort in the NAME of JESUS. ❤️ Mari Nunn
