“ Wow.I can't believe that I'm writing this. Jermecia you were loved by so many people. And you left alot of us broken-hearted by your sudden transition. I won't dare question GOD. Because this was his plan. Although I'm sad. I find joy in knowing that your with our HEAVENLY FATHER. Resting peacefully in his arms. And in his kingdom. Until we all meet again. Watch over us my love. I love you and I'll see you eternally one day. Sleep in perfect peace my Queen

This is all so unbelievable to me! Jermecia you were the funniest of us all growing up in Equality and riding the school bus! It's been a long time since I have seen your face but I remember your spirit even today. You will be missed. Praying for the Barris family during this difficult time. May God give you peace and comfort. -Taneka, Terrance, Mrs Bev and Sam. 🙏

“ Sending my deepest condolences to the family during this time of bereavement. Jermecia had such a big heart. If you saw her, regardless of how your day was going. She would definitely make you laugh. Those memories are what should be remembered. And by doing so she will forever live in our heart.

*RIP Sis,
- Shan*
