“ *To my Family,
I'm so sorry I could not be with you all today but the words of this old hymn says it all:
"Time is filled with swift transition, None earth
unmoved can stand Build your hopes on things eternal, And then hold, hold to God's unchanging hand."
Kader and I go way back. We played on the farm and in the woods.
We raced tractors. We had some good times together. Those memories are inside of me and will never go away. So it is with you.
Each of you have memories that are unique to you and will make you smile and in someway help to ease your pain. So having said that, I remind you that everything you need to get through this difficult time is all inside. The spirit of God dwells within. The life, the love and the legacy of Deacon Kader Adams will live on in you always.
Love, Rev. Nathaniel Jackson, Jr. (Better known as "Duck" or "Junior")
Oh by the way, to me, he will always be "Little Buddy"*

Kadar was an outstanding man, who stood tall among those who had an easier path in this world. I knew him from 1976 when he appeared at our factory seeking a job. Only learned yesterday of his trip to heaven, a place he certainly deserves. His life was tough, and yet he saw good in all around. As a "chalk", I am proud to claim him as a close friend as we mentored each other. Fred Thompson
