October 3, 1945 - February 15, 2022

Louise Smith, age 76 transitioned February 15, 2022. Graveside Services Sunday, February 20th, 2022 - 11:00 AM East Wood Memorial Gardens 7500 Wares Ferry Road. Montgomery, Alabama 36117. Louise Betts Smith was born in Millbrook, AL. to the late Jimmie Lee Betts and Fannie Mae Betts on October 3, 1945. Louise Betts Smith age 77, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, February 15, 2022, at Jackson Hospital in Montgomery, AL. She has a blissful childhood surrounded with love and joy from family and friends. She worked as a custodian worker while sharing her love and beautiful smile throughout the world. She briefly married a wonderful guy name Eugene Smith who brought sunshine and excitement in her life. Eugene passed away a few years later. Louise truly enjoyed living life to the fullest especially being around family and her grand kids that truly placed a big smile on her face and a blessing in her heart. Every Sunday she blessed the family with an amazing dinner that truly kept the family together. Louise had a special way to bring happiness into anybody heart just with a smile that carried throughout the years and of the people she was able to shine light into their life was her close friend Dorothy Bates whom she bonded through the years while living at Crowne Health Care Center and the love that was given back 100% from all the nurse and staff that worked there, I truly appreciate the love they showed. Louise was proceeded in death by her husband: Eugene Smith, one son: Frankie Betts, four siblings: Roberta Lee Betts Carter, Mary E Kelly, Willie J. Betts, her great aunt Doris Brown, and her uncle William Mckeithen, Louise is survived by her four children: David , Alessa, Lawrence, and Riley Betts, five grandchildren: Jamal Wright, Lawrence Betts Jr., DeSheika Betts, Mikayle Oliver, Brittany Wilson, Two great grandchildren: Devouring Robinson and QourDell (Corey) Robinson, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends to the family who touched the life of Louise Smith. “ My sincerest condolences to you all during your time of loss. May you cherish every memory you had with your mother and remember the love that she had for all of you. I pray that you will continue to comfort one another and allow God to show His strength in your time of weakness. Remember that God is love. God is merciful. God is faithful. He will turn your mourning into joy! ”
