

Mary Kennebrew

December 24, 1948 - July 14, 2023

Mary Kennebrew 74, a resident of Clanton, Alabama, transitioned July 14, 2023. Funeral service will be July 22, 2023, at West End Church of Christ, Clanton, Al, at 11:00A.M. burial to follow in Luthern Cemetery. Mary was born the second child of the late Ezell Edwards and Georgia Hosecloth. She dedicated her life to Christ at an early age. She attended Chilton County Training School and went on to get her degree at George Wallace Community College. After retiring from Walmart, she spent her days sitting on her porch enjoying the company of anyone coming by and spending time with her family was her greatest joy. She was a listening ear to anyone coming to her for advice and if you had any doubts that she could be mistaken, her favorite line was "You don't believe a black cow gives white milk". She took pride in being a confidant to many and the love she showed was simply unmatched. She lived a fulfilling life as a sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, cousin and dear friend. She leaves to cherish her memories a daughter Vyonka Hilliard (Clanton, Al). Three sisters Martha Ware (Clanton, Al) and Teresa Thompson (Douglasville, Ga) and Mildred (Mike) Crosby (St Petersburg, Fl). Three brothers George (Dean) Morrison (Clanton, Al), Thomas (Lisa) Hosecloth (McDonough, Ga), and Keith (Kim) Hosecloth Sr (Lithia Springs, Ga). Three grandchildren Endia Hilliard (Clanton, Al), Jordan Hilliard (Clanton, Al), and Sylvester Hilliard (Clanton, Al), 7 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She will surely be missed for she had the heart that cared completely. Hillside

“ In Loving memory

In this world we never know once we are born into which family we shall live. My niece Naomi, was my sister's child but for me she was family and she will be missed. Her smile, her sense of humor and her positive outlook on life. She always had a common sense approach of solving a problem which always gave you pause to rethink your thoughts. I will always remember her with love and no matter where I was, she would reach out to me because I was family.

With all my Love, Mattie Caffee Wilson (Aunt Sis)
