“ Whenever I saw her it was as if she had a glow. I never tried to figure it out, because she was just herself. Beautiful and always leading the way. I loved to hear her talk. She would remain me of someone that I just couldn't figure who. Tasha the baby girl was so special I could tell. As a little girl she was never shy. She walked tall and confident. No wonder she was a supervisor on her job. She must have been an angel, because now she has her wings. Rest In Peace! To her mom and her children may God wrap his arms around you, and comfort you as only he can. To her older sister Phillis he feels your pain. I can't help but shed a tear because Jesus only can pick you up. To her brothers and dad Lord help y'all is all I pray. Gone but never forgotten. Love you!
