“ It’s ironic that Ned passed on Daddy’s (Isom Thomas) Birthday. They were neighbors and friends for many years. Ned loved and respected him like a father and he felt the same about Ned. Anything that Daddy couldn’t do on his own, Ned was there to help. My father had a running joke about Ned coming over every Sunday morning for him to tie his tie before church or on any occasion when he wore a tie. The joke was, after all of those years he never learned to do it himself. Daddy knew it was just an opportunity to speak and hug every Sunday Morning ❤️ Our sincere condolences and prayers for his family,
