“ Princella was a beautiful person. She was kind, sweet, and caring. As a child, she was always polite and respectful. She remained that way as an adult and instilled the same values in her children. Faith and family were very important to her. God peacefully plucked her from amongst us as a testament to how she lived. May that same peace abide with each of you. Know that you are not alone for God promises that He will never leave nor forsake us.

“ I did not have the pleasure of meeting Princella, but I work with her sister, Loretta, and had the blessings of her sharing moments of her sister, in communication, on the job with me. Loretta truly loved her baby sister. Now, we say good night, never good by. God is close to the broken hearted. With deepest sympathy and condolences, Monique Smiley & Family.
