“ Thank You for being the best step mom ❤️ I remember first meeting you through my dad, i was a little jealous at first because im a daddy's girl but once i got to know you all of that went out the window. You are such a sweet and loving person. I remember after school coming to your house every home game while i wait on the football game to start and you would be cleaning the house and would have your music on dancing with neek right there hyping you up! EVERY single time i seen you, i always hugged you.. whether you were feeling good or bad i always made sure to hug you and ask how you were doing. Thank you for being you, even tho i wasn't your biological daughter you never made me feel like it and for that i will forever have a place in my heart for you! Get your rest shukeeta , I'll take care of my dad from here ❤️🙏
