“ It was long last I talked with you bro didn't know you was doing bad you always sounded so full of life. Even if our talks didn't last long we talked just to say hi. Some people think it was odd two guys who loved the same woman could be friends. You show me that you was a amazing cat early and I knew I could get along with you and you did your best with my child perfectly a great stepfather and I do salute you and thank you for your role. You'll be missed Stan say hi to chris for me I know she waiting on you . It's been good rest well homie

“ Stanley Deramus was a wonderful friend of mine.
He was always happy and jolly.
We worked at two different places and shared office at 1.
Ate lunch in our office every day and he would just laugh and laugh
Stanley and I shared a lot of common interest so there was always something to talk about.
I never met a person that didn't like Stan.
A friend described him as a gentle giant I agree he was a giant among men not only by height but by heart as well.
I'll truly miss you my friend.
