“ Since 1999, you've been my sister, my best friend and someone who means the world to me. It has taken everything in me to finally accept the fact that you're gone. "T", I love you beyond words. From our daughters having the same birthday's to matching cars. All I ever wanted to do was be "just like you".

You taught me so much it's unreal. From parenting to cooking and everything in between you taught me how to survive it all. What I wouldn't give to hear you say, "gull im going to the country lol".

"T", I love you so much and you leave behind some beautiful babies and I love them just as much.

As my tears fall and my heart is shattered.

Teresa, I love you big sus and im hugging you from the very place we first said "hello".

#Texas They called us TNT for are reason because together we were dynamite.

Rest on big sus, and save a spot for me next to you and my big brother Nate. The best brother ever!!

I love you "T"..... FOREVER 100!!!!

Respectfully,

Your lil sister "Tamika"

I send stars "T"
