“ Andre and family: We are so sorry for the passing of your dad, I have fond memories of him when he would call the special education office to speak to Marshall, He was always very courteous and polite, He also offered words of encouragement and those were nice to here, He was a good man to work with and again we are sorry for your loss, Our prayers are with the family during this time,

“ Dear Cheryl, James, Andre, Rennie, Donald and family, You have my heartfelt condolences at this most difficult time. I fondly remember Mr. Jackson, as well as Mrs. Jackson, welcoming me in your home on several holiday stays. Although I was a guest, you all made me feel like family. Praise God for a life well lived and for the lives Mr. Jackson touched along the way. May God comfort and keep you.

*Love,
Marcia*
