“ Mr.Caldwell, Thomas as he liked to be called, was our "gas man" for years. He always had a smile on his face when he came to fix our gas problems. When he came, there was always time to visit and it was such a pleasure to be able to. He was a fine and noble Christian man who will be missed by many. May the Lord Jesus fill the void he leaves in his family and community. Thank you for blessing us Thomas.

“ Granddaddy was the most peaceful and loving grandad I could ever ask for. He always made sure we were okay and we felt loved. He kept us in in church like clock work which drives my faith in Christ today, and I only have fond memories of my grandaddy, he never ever let anything bother him I feel like he lived as though he lived on clouds 😂. I love my grandaddy, he was truely a gem.

“ I love you Granddaddy! You were the most amazing granddad ever! Thank you for taking care of us as kids and showing us what's right from wrong. I still remember the time when you would be going to work and I would ask "Granddaddy where are you going!" and you would say "Off" and we would laugh. I would say after "You can't go off." "What?" and you would just laugh and be on your way. I remember when you brought home that huge refrigerator box! That was the best. We made it into a little house and drew all over it! Thank you Granddaddy for everything! Was so fun always.

“ Mr. Caldwell was always such a gentleman and loved Eclectic. He helped me a lot during the Eclectic Centennial Celebration preparations and planning for the downtown murals. He always had a good story to relay about the good old days. I was very honored to be a part of the group who named "Thomas C. Caldwell Street" in his honor for the years of service he provided this town. Rest and enjoy your heavenly reward.

“ Thomas C and May were my neighbors for all of my childhood years. He was always a very special person always so giving, helpful and a whole lot of fun. He always had a funny antidote for every occasion. I will always remember the times we shared under the shade tree in his yard. Rest In Peace Dear Neighbor and Friend. May God welcome you home with a declaration of “job well done.”
