“ I Met Zann years ago. When her sister Nina and my daughter Rheeka used to hang together. From day 1 she was beautiful inside and out. When she lived on Stephens street in Montgomery. My daughter was out there she always would call me and let me know that she had put word out that she was family so no one would harm her she would feed her and give her clean clothes to put on. She was a 😊 watching over my daughter and I love her she would often invite me over for barbecues .one day she had on this pretty flower shirt that had a drip in the back I said I love that shirt she said you want it chic I said yes she went in the room and took it off and gave it to me. That's the kind of person she was always giving people the shirt off her back we all going to miss you my friend. We loved you but God loved you more Fly High sweetheart until we meet again. Love you Zann Tears Falling.
